

*3D Laser Scanning Documentation
of a Listed Building on the Themistokleous Coast (no. 60, Piraiki), December 2015*

There were no as built drawings of the current conditions for the historic building on Derigny street, constructed in 1929.

Accurate drawings were ordered from us to check the static efficiency and architectural design, as well to aid in the design of a new use for the space.

www.xyz.gr

3D Laser Scanning
for all spaces
of the listed building,
(total area = 570 sq.m.)
Production of a 3D model
Production of 2D drawings,
including floor plans for every level,
sections and elevations.